An Act Concerning Fines in the County Palatine of Tipperary.

CHAP. XX.

WHEREAS it is for the Common Good and Advantage of the Publick, that the Estates of Purchasers for Valuable Considerations should be Secured unto them, towards which nothing has conduced more then Fines Levyed in Due Form of Law. And whereas some doubt may arise concerning the Validity of Fines Levied in the County Palatine Court of Tipperary, according to the Custom and Usage thereof, whereby the Estates of several of His Majesties Subjects who have been, and may hereafter be, Purchasers of Lands, Tenements, and Hereditaments, being within the Jurisdiction of the said Palatinate, may to their great prejudice be called in Question. For Remedy Whereof,

Be it Enacted, by Your Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Assent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons in this present Parliament Assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That all and singular the Fines heretofore Levyed in the Court of the said County Palatine, shall be of the same Force and Efficacy in Law as Fines with Proclamations Levyed before His Majesties Justices of the Common-Pleas in this Kingdom, and that all and singular Fines, which at any time hereafter

ter shall be Levyed or acknowledged in any Term before the Judge or Judges in the said County Palatine of Tipperary, for the time being, of any Lands, Tenements, or other Hereditaments, Lying, or being Within the said County Palatine, Which shall be openly Read and Proclaimed in the open Court, in the presence of the Judge or Judges, in the Term held for the said Palatinate, being the same Term that the same shall fortune to be Ingrossed; And also that shall be openly Read and Proclaimed in the presence of the Judge or Judges of the said County Palatine of Tipperary, or one of them, for the time being, at Two Terms that shall be holden in the said County Palatine of Tipperary, before the Judge or Judges of the same, or one of them next after the Levying and Ingrossing of such said Fine, shall be of like, and of the same Force, Strength, and Effect in the Law, to all Intents, Constructions and Purposes, as Fines being duly Levyed with Proclamations before the King's Judges of his Common-Pleas at Dublin, be, or ought to be.
